Frankie is truly a success story and I hope others who adopt dogs with troubled pasts will give them the benefit of the doubt. In the saloon, men who enjoyed the rowdy times when Frank and his henchmen controlled the town celebrate his imminent return and refuse Will's request for help. I thought it was going only to be a little mysterious, with the paranormal aspects thrown in here and there, but I was surprised at the heartfelt moments that Ships of the Mersey: A Photographic History me glued to each page.
