The elephant was hunted down by Kenya Wildlife services, shot, and its tusks removed and placed in the same safe store in Nairobi as those from poachers. I can see how this might be the case, but it is disappointing to think that her work might be discounted in this way and is to my mind a sour attitude to take - I doubt John Steinbeck received much criticism in England having failed to set East of Eden in Shropshire. The plot and subplots are handled with masterly finesse: Action and suspense are nonstop. Cunningham, M.
