The word hell, in Hebrew, is 'Gehenna'; and apparently the whole idea was taken from the rubbish dump with the eternal fire outside Jerusalem that was named Gehenna in the days of old. Her husband remarries, and the new wife is determined to do away with her stepson. Since the intensification of the financial crisis in September central banks and governments globally have acted in a decisive and concerted manner to contain the adverse effect of the financial crisis on the real economy and promote its recovery. She loves everything spooky, fantastical, and romantic, but will settle for frightening, magical, and love-filled.
